- 9. Mr. Richard Cupolo and Mr. John Emanuele, the individuals who owned the master recordings of the Copyrighted Compositions as well as the copyrights in and to the underlying musical compositions, assigned all right, title and interest to each copyrighted work to Plaintiff, and said assignments were duly recorded within the United States Copyright Office.
- 10. As Exhibit A to this Complaint demonstrates, Plaintiff has complied with all laws pertinent to the Copyrighted Compositions as a copyrighted work and, in particular, has applied for and received the Certificates of Copyright Registration from the Register of Copyrights for the Copyrighted Compositions.
- 11. Upon information and belief, Defendant RHAPSODY is in the business of, among other things, offering an interactive subscription music service over the internet. Upon information and belief, Defendant RHAPSODY has been, and now is, directly infringing, and indirectly infringing by way of inducing infringement and/or contributing to the infringement of Plaintiff's Copyrighted Compositions, by, among other things, making the Copyrighted Compositions available for unlawful and unauthorized digital download and distribution and/or performance to the public, including at least the (www.Rhapsody.com) website, to distribute music over the internet. Defendant RHAPSODY is thus liable for infringement of Plaintiff's exclusive rights to the Copyrighted Compositions pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §§ 101 et seq.

The Infringement

- 12. Pursuant to Plaintiff's agreement with TuneCore, Plaintiff checks a box that says "Deliver Here" which guarantees nothing but an audition with the selected digital store.

  Defendant RHAPSODY was one of the "selected stores" chosen by Plaintiff to be sent the master audition recordings of the Copyrighted Compositions.
- 13. After receipt of the master audition recordings, Defendant RHAPSODY may elect to exploit the masters, or reject the sound recordings due to "technical or editorial specifications."
- 14. As an interactive service under 17 U.S.C. § 114(j)(7) of the Copyright Act, once Defendant RHAPSODY elected to exploit the master recordings, it was obligated to obtain licenses from Plaintiff to perform and distribute both the musical work and the sound recording for each of the Copyrighted Compositions pursuant to 17 U.S.C. §§ 106(4) and 114(d)(3)(C) (2006).
- 15. Defendant RHAPSODY did elect to exploit the sound recordings of the Copyrighted Compositions, but elected to do so with no license or authority. Attached as Exhibit B is a chart of the interactive streams for each of the Copyrighted Compositions through Defendant's interactive subscription service.

- 16. While Defendant RHAPSODY has purportedly obtained blanket licenses from ASCAP for the performance of the musical works, it has failed to obtain mechanical licenses under 17 U.S.C.§ 115 for the distribution of the musical works.
- 17. Defendant RHAPSODY has also failed to obtain any license for the public performance of the sound recordings of the Copyrighted Compositions from Plaintiff. Both of these failures constitutes an infringement of Plaintiff's exclusive distribution and reproduction rights, as provided for in 17 U.S.C. §§ 106(1) and (3) of the Copyright Act.
- 18. On May 8, 2014, Defendant RHAPSODY was contacted by Plaintiff and notified that it did not have the authority to distribute Plaintiff's Copyrighted Compositions.
- 19. On May 8, 2014, Defendant RHAPSODY acknowledged receipt notice from Plaintiff. Defendant RHAPSODY elected to ignore that notice.
- 20. On June 30, 2014, Defendant RHAPSODY was contacted again, this time by counsel to Plaintiff, and notified of the infringements alleged herein.
- 21. By e-mail dated July 14, 2014, from Fran Mady, Esq., Senior Counsel to Defendant, Ms. Mady stated:
  - "We received your letter dated June 30, 2014 and are currently working with our agent, the Harry Fox Agency, to investigate the status of the mechanical licenses for the musical compositions listed in the Schedule A of your aforementioned letter."
- 22. Plaintiff has no relationship with The Harry Fox Agency, and that entity cannot convey the requisite mechanical copyrights to the Copyrighted Compositions.
- 23. At no time has Defendant RHAPSODY ceased the unlawful distribution of Plaintiff's Copyrighted Works, even after multiple notices.

24. Nor has Defendant RHAPSODY offered to pay the statutory royalty rate for a mechanical license adopted by the Copyright Royalty Board (the very same settlement negotiated with the participation and approval of Defendant.)

FIRST CLAIM FOR RELIEF COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

- 25. Plaintiff incorporates the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs as if set forth at length here.
- 26. Defendant has without authority from Plaintiff, reproduced and publicly performed and/or publicly distributed sound recordings embodying Plaintiff's Copyrighted Compositions through its interactive web-based subscription streaming service.
- 27. Even after multiple notices that Defendant has no license or authority, Defendant has elected to continue to reproduce and publicly perform and/or publicly distribute sound recordings embodying Plaintiff's Copyrighted Compositions through its subscription service.
- 28. Upon information and belief, even though Defendant knows it has no license or authority, it attempts to induce the copyright owners to join The Harry Fox Agency, rather than remove the unlicensed works from its service.
- 29. The foregoing conduct of Defendant, was, and is, willful and malicious and constitutes intentional copyright infringement in violation of 17 U.S.C. §§ 106, 115 and 501.
- 30. As a direct and proximate result of each of the Defendant's infringement, Plaintiff has incurred damages, as described more fully above. Therefore, Plaintiff is entitled to recover the actual damages suffered by it as a result of the infringement, and any profits of the Defendant that are attributable to the infringement and are not taken into account in computing the actual damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b), or, in the alternative, statutory damages for willful infringement in the amount of $150,000, but no less than $30,000, for each infringement of each copyright registration identified in Schedule A, as available under the law.

SECOND CLAIM FOR RELIEF CONTRIBUTORY COPYRIGHT INFRINGEMENT

- 31. Plaintiff incorporates the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs as if set forth at length here.
- 32. An infringement of Plaintiff's rights in the Copyrighted Compositions occurs each and every time Defendant, without authority from Plaintiff, causes a data file containing the Copyrighted Compositions to be stored or uploaded on any third-party website for viewing by users of the Internet.
- 33. An infringement of Plaintiff's rights in and to the Copyrighted Compositions occurred each time a third party, as a result of Defendant's inducement, encouragement and/or assistance, made derivative works from the Copyrighted Composition.
- 34. Such an infringement is intentionally induced, facilitated, encouraged and made possible by Defendant.
- 35. Through its conduct as averred in this Complaint, Defendant has engaged and continues to engage in the business of knowingly and systematically inducing, causing and materially contributing to the unauthorized reproduction, and/or public performance and/or public distribution of copies of the Copyrighted Compositions and thus to the infringement of Plaintiff's copyrights in and to the Copyrighted Compositions.
- 36. The foregoing acts of infringement by Defendant are willful, intentional and purposeful, in disregard of, and in indifference to, Plaintiff's rights.

- 37. Defendant's conduct, as averred in this Complaint, constitutes contributory infringement of Plaintiff's copyrights in violation of Sections 106, 115 and 501 of the Copyright Act, 17 U.S.C. §§ 106, 115 and 501.
- 38. As a direct and proximate result of the contributory infringements by Defendant, Plaintiff is entitled to compensatory and punitive damages and Defendants' profits pursuant to 17 U.S.C. 504(b) for each separate act of infringement in an amount to be determined.
- 39. In the alternative, Plaintiff is entitled to statutory damages, pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c), in the amount of $150,000, but not less than $30,000, with respect to each infringement as available under the law.
- 40. Plaintiff is further entitled to its attorneys' fees and full costs pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 505.

FOURTH CLAIM FOR RELIEF PERMANENT INJUNCTION

- 41. Plaintiff incorporates the allegations contained in the preceding paragraphs as if set forth at length here.
- 42. Defendants', and each of them, conduct, as averred in this Complaint, is causing and, unless enjoined and restrained by this Court, will continue to cause Plaintiff great and irreparable injury that cannot fully be compensated or measured in money.
  - 43. Plaintiff has no adequate remedy at law.
- 44. Pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 502, Plaintiff, and each of them, is entitled to a permanent injunction prohibiting further infringements of Plaintiff's copyrights by Defendants.

PRAYER FOR RELIEF

WHEREFORE, Plaintiff prays for judgment against Defendants as follows:

- A. On Plaintiff's First Claim for Relief, Plaintiff is entitled to recover the actual damages suffered by it as a result of the infringement, and any profits of the Defendant that are attributable to the infringement and are not taken into account in computing the actual damages pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(b).
- B. Plaintiff be allowed to establish Defendant's gross revenue, and the Defendant be required to prove its deductible expenses and the elements of profit attributable to factors other than the copyrighted work.
- C. In the alternative, Plaintiff demands statutory damages in the amount of $150,000 per infringement for each Copyright Registration identified in the annexed Exhibit A, but in no case less than $30,000 with respect to each infringement, or for such other amount as may be proper pursuant to 17 U.S.C. § 504(c);
